

Wandering About Wonders of Agricultural Fair at Allentown : Law and Order Troopers

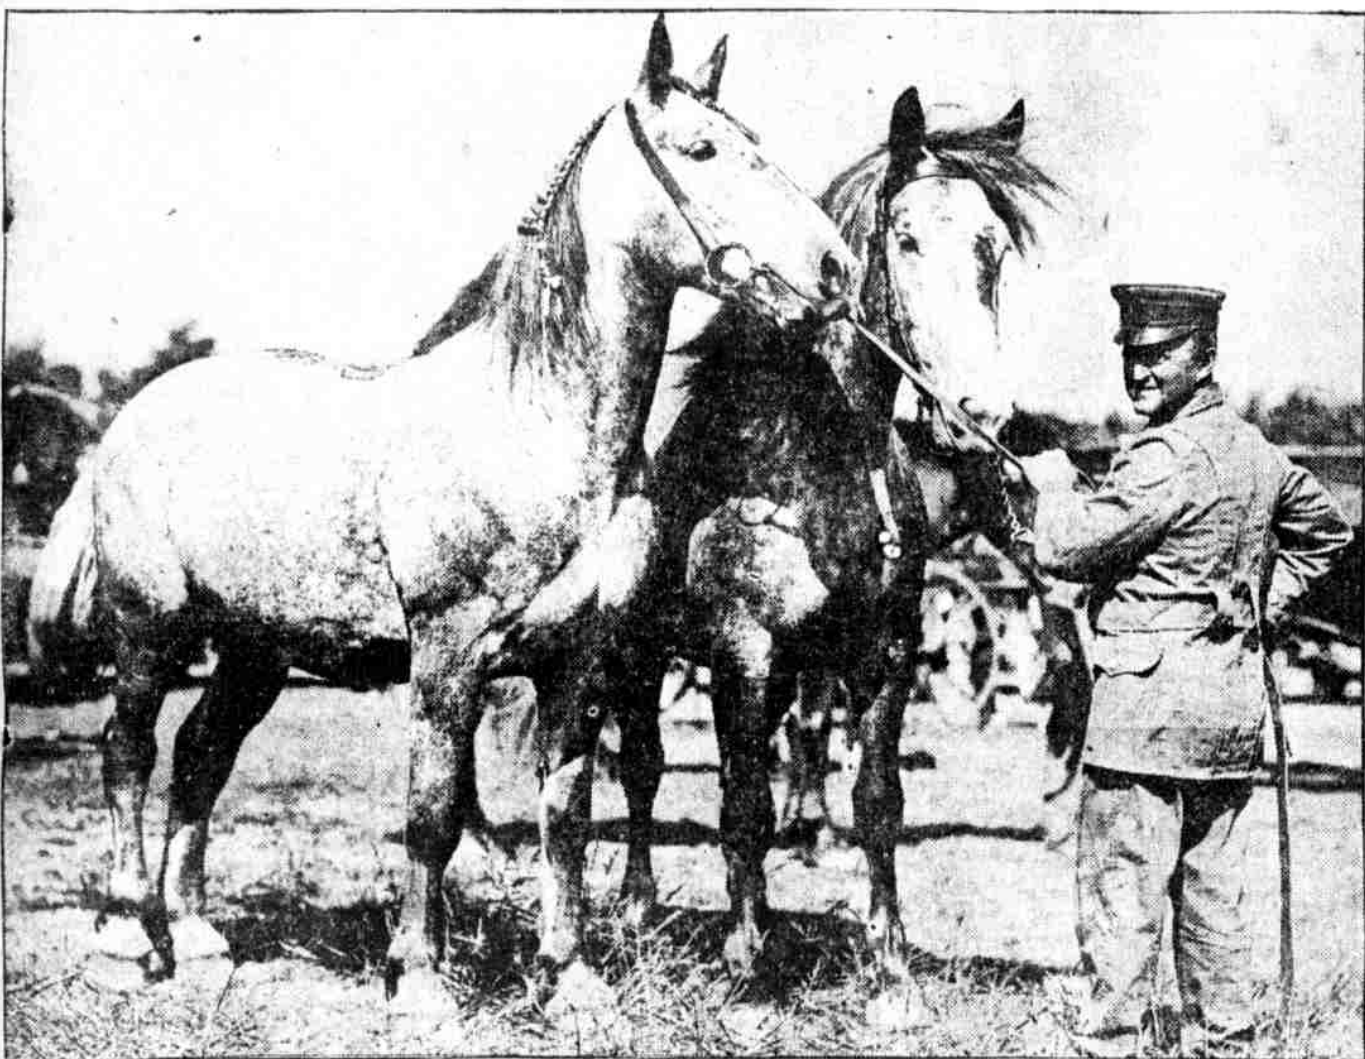

MANY HUNDREDS of automobiles are parked in the Allentown Fair grounds on the field once filled by as many U. S. army motor ambulances, while their owners watch the speeding trotters and pacers whirl around the track from the vast grandstand.

AT RIGHT one of the very greatest geese at the show is the thirty-two-pound goose shown by Stanley Mason from his farm near Allentown.

Photos by Ledger Photo Service

THE PRIDE of the fair is its horse show, which this year comprises over 100 animals, including twenty-four Percherons displayed by Colonel Harry C. Trexler. Two of Colonel Trexler's horses are shown above.

EQUILIBRISTS advertise their act with a momentary exhibition of their skill in front of the tent.

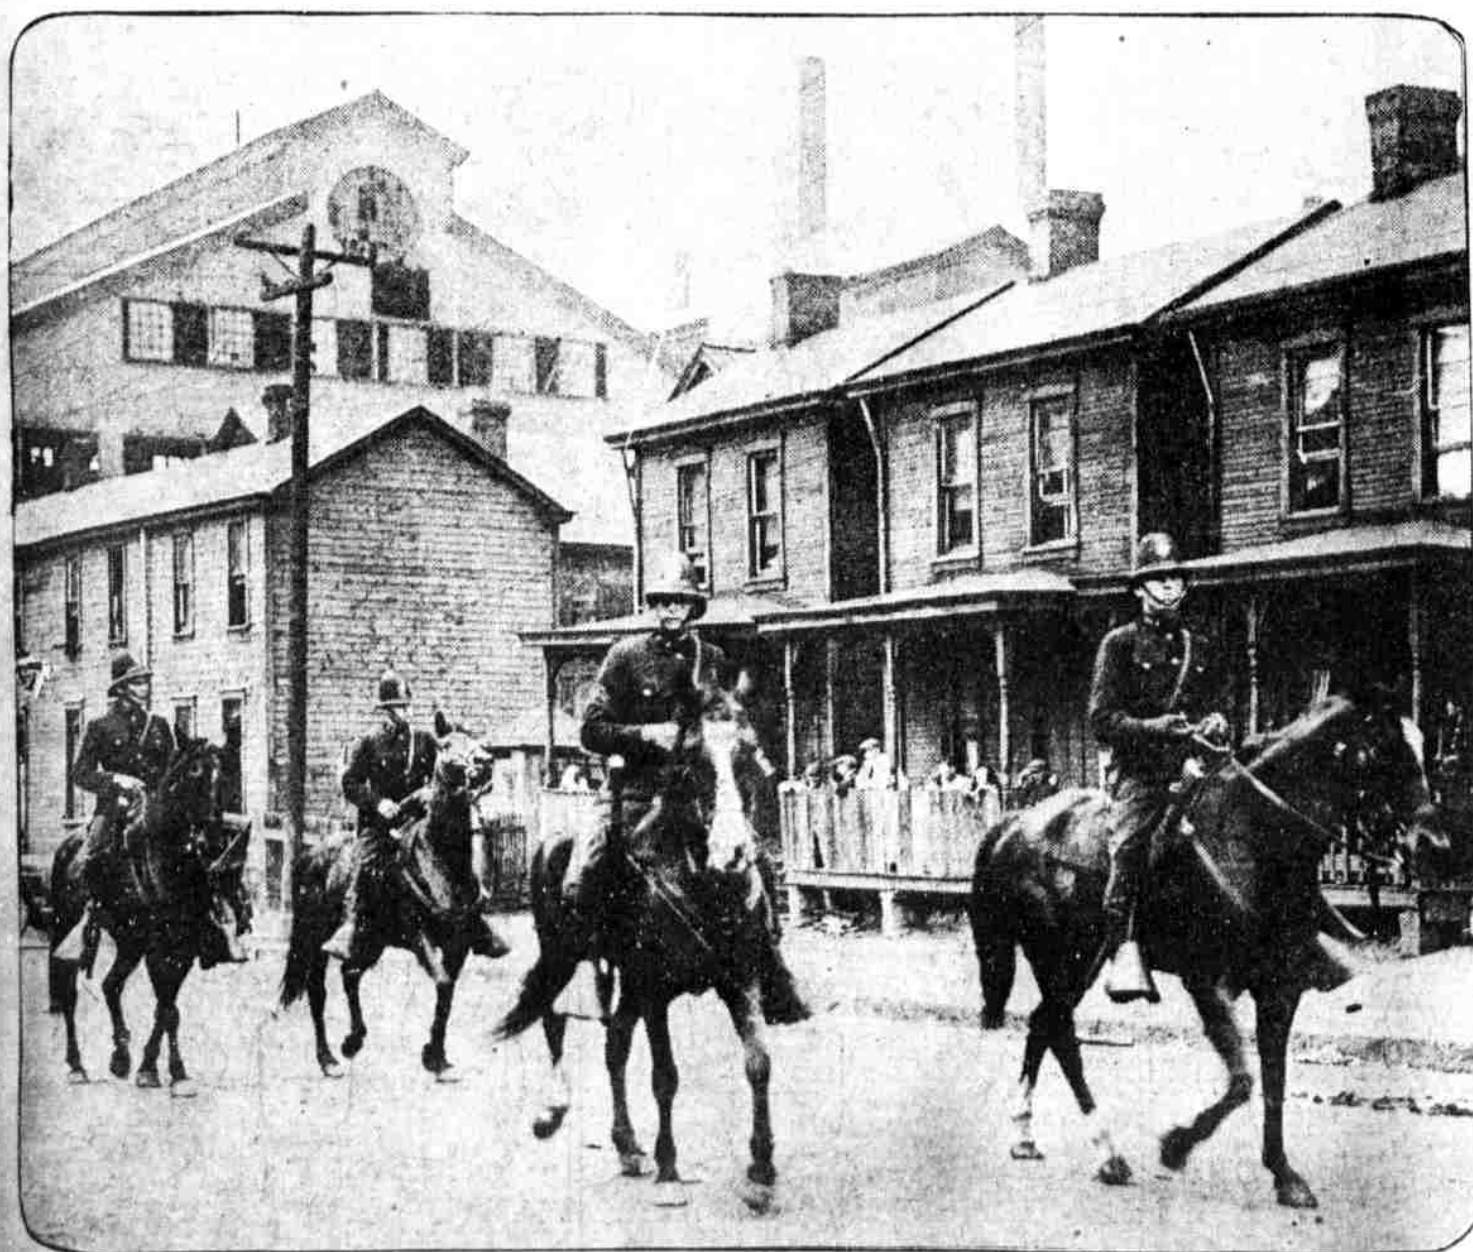

THE MYSTIFYING levitating lady—a puzzling midway attraction.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ADELINE KNOPFLER, 6025 Catharine street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

LAW AND ORDER ride the streets of Clairton. Pennsylvania state police patrolling the highways of the little steel borough. A clash between the troopers and steel workers occurred on the first day of the walkout, when the police dispersed a meeting of strikers.

STEEL STRIKER halted in the Pittsburgh district by a state trooper and searched for concealed firearms.